Planning Meeting

INFORMATIONAL MEETING-BY-LAWS CHANGES
October 30, 1990-by Virginia Morgan

It started out and ended as an informational meeting as advertised by the Planning Board, but it disintegrated into a shouting match by the summer residents when the Planning Board members decided at 8 p.m. to call a halt to the discussion of seasonal home use as proposed for a by-law change. The meeting began at 7 p.m. at the Old Hammondtown School. The first such meeting held on October 16th at the Town Hall Conference Room had to be stopped because of overcrowding. At that first meeting seasonal homeowners were angry that they had traveled from the Boston area only to be turned away. They felt they would have a chance to be heard at this second meeting. The school hall was full with over 350 people.

Many were heard at the October 30th meeting but Chairman William H. Matthews announced the cut-off when, he said, "comments are becoming repetitious and we have eight other proposals to discuss". When he said this issue is dead, the room was filled with hollering and protests that "I haven't had my say", "We will file a class action suit against the Planning Board", and "We'll change our voting place and move it to Mattapoisett so we can vote this down".

The fourth article, Seasonal Dwelling Change of Use, had been taken out of sequence to hear the out-of-town residents. Board member Lawrence O'Pezio pleaded for the audience to be orderly.

In response to a question by Arch Lammey, how does Mattapoisett's zoning by-law change differ from Chatham's by-laws, Mr. O'Pezio said the by-law is ours. "Our position with the new landowner is the Board of Health approves the septic system. If a person is aggrieved by the board's decision, they can go to the Board of Appeals. The Appeals Board is eliminated as an automatic entity, but is included in the process." A question was asked why we need changes; can't you handle things now as individual problems arise. Mr. O'Pezio said, "No, we have no current by-law to address seasonal dwellings."

John Hall asked why all this concern about growth when we are not growing.
Chairman Matthews replied, "Personally, I don't like this negative attitude. This town is growing. With the present economic situation we are holding our own and standing pat. We have about 6,000 now, and we will grow and will have to face these problems down the road." (There are about 9,000 to 10,000 in the summer population in Mr. Matthews' opinion.) Member Barry Denham, noted the voters mandated at the Town meeting addressing the growth of the town.

A Peases Point resident said the by-law refers to records defining a year round person; what is a year round resident? He said his heat is on year-round but he may not be here year-round. Mr. Denham said there is no need to go to the building inspector or board of appeals if there is no building change. He said there are seasonal homes in town, 103 homes on less than six acres, that clearly would not be allowed today. "We have to adopt standards and we are trying to control homes that are being used year-round not able to handle year-round occupancy with its septic system and well on one lot. A well had to be 100 feet from a septic system. We would be in real trouble to provide garbage collection, snow plowing and water."

Mr. O'Pezio said there is no town by-law to enforce health regulations. The Board of Health regulations can be changed at the whim of the board. (He said he did not mean to imply the health board was a capricious board.) A by-law would be enforced and would have to go back to town meetings to be changed. "We need something without individual interpretations to address health problems."

A lady asked if the town is going to cut their taxes in half if they use the home only 180 days. Mr. O'Pezio said the new by-law wouldn't say you cannot live there more than 180 days, but you have to abide by Title 5 state law.

One man said, "you are taking a quick shot effect, this is an old problem and has come up before. In Dedham the town gave them sewer and water. That can be surmounted. It's very expensive for these people here, they can't sell to prospective buyers with these restrictions. It would be more prudent to look at these by-laws some more. Politically, it's a dead herring with too many people against it."

criminatory and will apply across town in all areas. The definition of seasonal dwelling can be anywhere in town.

A lady asked "what is the problem? First it's pollution in the harbor, then it's a strain on services in the future." Mr. Denham explained pollution comes from overcrowding. "It will cover all things our zoning doesn't allow." Mr. Denham said he was sorry to have to say it, but the beach areas do create a problem. "First you didn't need a big lot, but more and more people for the past thirty years have been converting to year-round. For others it's a source of income, renting it in the winter.

"Lots are not large enough to use full-time. As more are converted to year-round, the land won't absorb septic systems, roads in the area won't hold up and snow plows and garbage trucks will be in trouble. Increased use in these areas is just not in the best interest to you owners or to the town."

Mr. Matthews explained the time frame for the article by-law changes; that hopefully they will be ready for the special town meeting, probably in December. "There are areas we have to iron out and define. We have to define what is good for the town in the long run."

Mr. O'Pezio responded to a question about sewage plans in town, saying, "Long range plans are in the works but funding is the problem. If the Water/Sewer Commissioners received a windfall of 25 million it would be two years under way and two years to complete. What do we do with it when we collect it? We have to pay for the additional capacity in Fairhaven; so how does the town want to spend its money?"

Planning Board members repeated several times the same rules apply to all new building and additions not just to seasonal homes; and that no restrictions will apply unless you want to change the use of your property. Additionally, some of the problems expressed should be addressed to the Board of Assessors and not the Planning Board, said Mr. O'Pezio.

A resident of Angelica Avenue commented the mouth of the Mattapoissett River is polluted with no seasonal homes in the area and that the Crescent Beach stream is polluted because of the regional high school. Mr. O'Pezio said there are 460 acres of Buzzards Bay that are now closed to shellfishing; this should say something. It was brought out that Title 5 does not regulate bathrooms but bedrooms, in the study on pollution.

Proceeding on to the other articles for proposed by-law changes, Mr. O'Pezio noted the town does not have a by-law addressing the Mattapoisett River Aquifer Protection District.

A map was distributed designating the River Aquifer district and showing the water use district for another proposed by-law change. The purpose of the Mattapoisett River Aquifer Protection District is to protect the public health from the contamination of existing and potential public and private water supplies; the protection of the general welfare by preserving limited water supplies for present and future use; and the protection of the public welfare by taking steps now to preclude expensive pollutant elimination actions at a later date which could become a financial burden on the taxpayers of Mattapoisett. The article describes the permitted uses and those prohibited.

Mr. O'Pezio explained to a questioner that a golf course would require a special permit, whereas a personal garden would not. The extent of the aquifer district was explained by William Nicholson, Water/Sewer Superintendent, saying the district was established by SRPEDD (Southeastern Regional Economic Planning and Development District) and extends outside of Mattapoisett. This district includes some existing public wells and possible future sites of wells. In Mattapoisett, "we are 'water rich' with our wells. We share Mattapoisett well areas with Fairhaven; that is why the district looks so large."

Howard Tinkham commented that there are homes built 100 feet from the river. Mr. Nicholson noted there is a high side to Long Plain Road that is buildable. He explained that yes, this is a cooperative effort by not only Fairhaven but Marion, Rochester and Acushnet. Mr. Denham explained to a questioner that any agriculture, such as cranberry bogs, will require a permit for fertilizer.

A third proposed by-law discussed was Cluster Zoning. Mr. O'Pezio noted Mattapoisett does not have any by-law at the present time to address this issue. "This will give us more flexibility. Rather than eight houses on eight acres, cluster zoning would encourage a less sprawling form of development, a shorter network of streets and utilities, more economical development of land with less consumption of open space." After a public hearing on a cluster house plan, the Planning Board will have the authority to grant a special permit. Various regulations as to the size of the lot, frontage and whether the land is wetland will be addressed in the article proposed.

Questions concerning the possibility of development if four of the eight acres required are wetland was addressed by Mr. Denham who said it would depend on the shape of the lot, but it would have to follow Title 5 guidelines.

Partnership said he applauded the board's efforts to provide cluster housing in town. He made several suggestions, which he presented in writing to the board: why couldn't the dimension land requirement be three or four acres rather than eight; the 100 foot frontage seems somewhat excessive for 15,000 square foot lots and would require more road system; under common open space and qualification for density, if you exclude wetlands in density calculations, it would result in lower density and would encourage old subdivision rules rather than encourage cluster zoning.

Mr. Denham responded to the suggestions saying, "It's tough to talk specifics without knowing the land. Wetlands are controlled by the Conservation Commission. We have to have a 100 foot buffer zone. Wetlands are already protected. Some standards have to be set. After input from our planner, Burk Ketcham Associates, these are the figures we came up with. If anyone has new figures we will consider other ideas."

Mr. Denham also discussed common septic systems saying they are not endorsing the idea but if the alternative is acceptable to the Board of Health and the state DEP, it's not the Planning Board's decision.

discussion. Mr. O'Pezio noted the town does not have a by-law that addresses water use (not the drinking water). Mr. Denham said the proposed by-law doesn't address how you get to the water, only what you do when you get there. The map showed the area covered ranging from Marion to Fairhaven.

One by-law would formalize the the Planning Board as a permit granting authority.

Seasonal Shellfishing Areas Open

MATTAPOISETT SELECTMEN'S MEETING
OCTOBER 20, 1990-by VIRGINIA MORGAN

In a brief Selectmen's meeting last Tuesday, announcement was received from Shellfish Constable Brian Nunes that two areas in town are now seasonally approved by the state Division of Marine Fisheries for shellfishing. The seasonal approved dates are from November 1, 1990 to May 1, 1991, said Mr. Nunes.

The Shining Tides area consisting of: the waters and flats and 11 tributaries of the Mattapoisett Harbor, east of a line drawn northwesterly from the "No Shellfishing" sign on Ryecroft Point to the "No Fishing" sign at the northern entrance to the Mattapoisett River.

The second area is the Mattapoisett Boat Yard and that portion of Brant Island Cove designated as Leisure Shores Marina. Boat Yard area: the waters and flats and all tributaries of the Mattapoisett Boat Yard east of a line drawn northeasterly from the western end of the southern most pier at the Mattapoisett Boat Yard to the tip of the northerly most pier. Leisure Shores Marina: the waters and flats of that portion of the shellfish growing area, Brant Island Cove south of a line drawn east from the "No Shellfishing" sign at the Marina boat ramp to the northeastern most dock and thence west of a line drawn southerly to the southeastern most dock and thence to the "No Shellfishing" sign at the wooden gates at the base of the causeway.

These openings have been ordered as a result of examination by the Division of Marine Fisheries for the direct harvest of shellfish. All previous closures within Mattapoisett Harbor will remain in effect until further notice.

MIKE KOBZA
Optician

inSIGHT INTO FAMILY EYE CARE

Can any glasses be used for sports?

Not really. If the sport is passive, such as golf, or fishing there is no problem at all in using your regular prescription glasses. But, an active sport, such as basketball, football, racketball and tennis require protective eyewear. I think most everyone is unaware of the number of people who suffer eye injuries and, frequently, permanent damage to their eyes while playing sports. The sad part is that these injuries could have been prevented if these people had been wearing protective eyewear.

If you are currently wearing glasses and do play a sport, your optician can fit you with a sports goggle which would have the same prescription lenses as your glasses. These lenses, however, will be made of polycarbonate, a material which is unbreakable.

1990 BEAUJOLAIS NOUVEAU WINE

The time is fast approaching for the arrival of the 1990 Beaujolais Nouveau wine. On Friday, November 16th, the wine will be here! The date of this annual "Rite of Fall", which is governed by French law, has traditionally been a festive event in France. Wine lovers await its release, filling French cafes and wateringholes throughout the world for that "first taste" of the new vintage wine.

Beaujolais Nouveau is the very first release of the current vintage, bottled very young to capture all the fruit and freshness of the recently harvested grapes. It makes no pretense of finesse -- it is a light-hearted wine for drinking NOW.

The first bottles of Nouveau to arrive in this country are flown in from France, much to the delight of sippers too anxious to await its normal journey by ship.

In this tradition, the Marion Art Center is pleased to present its own "Beaujolais

New Pilings

If you have been to the town wharves lately, you've probably seen and heard the pile driver replacing some damaged piling and putting up some new ones.

Harbormaster Steve Mach explained pilings are being installed on the east side of Long Wharf for a breakwater, similar to the one that was there years ago. This breakwater has two sets of poles for a walkway and for dock space for the new harbormaster's boat. The breakwater will give protection to the skiffs on that side of the wharf. Mr. Mach

Conservation Works, too

You've heard a lot about recycling lately (and I'm sure you'll hear more). Your committee is working hard to find the best way for Mattapoissett.

Conservation is kind of a clone of recycling. Water conservation, for instance, it's so easy to conserve this valuable resource, but do we? For example: We can get just as clean with shorter showers and shampoos. Our teeth are just as brushed without the water running needlessly down the drain. Our clothes are just as washed when done in a large, energy efficient load, rather than a small "convenient" one. Our cars are just as clean when done with a bucket of water, rather than a running hose, and if you like to drink really cold water, put a bottle into the refrigerator, rather than waste all that running water 'til it's cold enough. But, with all earth's water, only 3% of it is fresh. And that's not a lot in the realm of things.

It takes training to undo the way we've lived; sure it's easier not to undo it, but we must. Earth's resources don't last forever, especially when we've abused them. Let's do things right - right now!

Q. My husband and I are both nearsighted. Can we prevent this vision problem in our child?

A. Nearsighted people, as you know, can see clearly up close but not far away.

Although nearsightedness is a common problem, its cause is not known for certain. Prevention, then, is not clear cut but optometrists can, in some cases, prescribe treatment that may help stop or slow its progression.

For example, mild prescription glasses to be worn only when doing close work might be prescribed to make it easier for the eyes to focus. Or contact lenses might be prescribed, since they sometimes tend to slow or stop nearsightedness.

Your best bet to control nearsightedness is to start your child with annual eye examinations at age three.

In the past year he has missed only two or three lunches.

Jake lives with his son and daughter-in-law, Robert and Nancy Banz of 8 Long Plain Road. He has three grandchildren.

Helping to celebrate his birthday was his niece, Henny Krackhardt of Chicago who came just for the occasion.

Bob said his dad was born in Germany and came to America through Ellis Island when he was 17 years of age. He settled in Chicago where he had relatives and became an industrial painting contractor, specializing in high towers and buildings.

Jake said he came to Mattapoissett 11 years ago and loves it here. A reader of three newspapers, he said his favorite is the Presto Press.

For his hobbies Jake loves gardening, both vegetable and flowers. "I also have chores at my son's home", and he chuckled as he said, "I feed the dog and cat." Nancy commented that he likes to chop wood when he can.

Monday, November 6th, officially began our Campbell's Label Program for the 1990-91 school year. Last year we collected almost 25,000 labels and used them to purchase 40 student calculators to use with our math program. We would like to equal or top that mark this year. We will be collecting labels through the end of February, and we would appreciate the community's continued support for this program. Labels may be sent to school with your children, or they may be dropped off at the school office.

Mrs. Terry Canty, our program coordinator, will be setting up additional label drop-off sites in Mattapoisett during

Letter to the Editor

As the November elections approach, we are graphically reminded of the electorate's disgust and anger over the perceived selfish, uncaring and insensitive attitude of our legislators.

Lest we feel that we are living in an age devoid of altruism, I would like to take the opportunity to commend the activities of one stellar example of selflessness - David Garro of Mattapoissett.

Over the years, Dave has given hundreds of hours of his time and energy without ever expecting anything in return. In fact, Dave routinely deflects praise toward others.

His most recent accomplishment, however, cries out for recognition. At summer's end, David had an idea which proved to be extraordinary. Almost singlehandedly (although he'd argue the point), Dave conceived, organized and implemented an 8 week baseball clinic for the children of Mattapoissett.

The 3 hour Sunday sessions provided approximately 40 youngsters with a constructive, healthy way to spend their leisure time, at little or no cost. The clinics were extremely well received by all of the children, and, in true Dave Garro

It is my feeling that the time is right to publicly thank Dave for all that he has done. On behalf of the many parents and children you've served, Thank You Coach Garro!! Now, if we can just get this model to work on Beacon Hill.

Seniors Day Cookout

More than 160 senior citizens from Marion, Mattapoisett, Rochester and Wareham attended a Senior Citizens' Cookout at Washburn Park in Marion on October 2nd, hosted by Continental Cablevision.

The cookout was the second annual event Continental has sponsored for senior citizens. Last summer Continental sponsored "A Day at the (Barnstable) Fair" for local seniors.

The seniors had such a good time last year they were still talking about it this spring, and asking if something was planned for this year, said Carol Ditata, Continental Cablevision's general manager in Marion.

Continental's commitment to older residents in the four communities also extends to getting them involved in producing cable TV programming of interest to senior citizens.

"We wanted to encourage seniors to utilize our local programming department; to feel comfortable using the camera or participating in programs for seniors", said Deborah Stinson, Continental's program director. "At first they were a bit intimidated by the technology, but then they loved seeing themselves on TV. I think we're helping them feel more connected to the community and to each other."

Twelve Program Advisory Committees exist at Old Colony, one for each of the vocational technical programs at the school. Under the requirements of M.G.L. Chapter 74, each vocational technical program at the school must have an Advisory Committee comprised of representatives of local business and industry related to the program area, organized labor, parents, and students. The Advisory Committee assists school personnel on equipment acquisitions, curriculum, instructional methods, and program evaluation.

The initial meeting of the various committees will begin with a dinner prepared and served by the Culinary Arts Department at Old Colony. Following dinner, Old Colony's Massachusetts Association of School Superintendents' Award nominee, Ronald Pratt, will be recognized. The various committees will then meet in their respective shops with the Old Colony instructors.

ANNUAL PROGRAM PLAN

The Special Needs Department at Old Colony Regional Vocational-Technical High School announces the availability of its proposed annual Program Plan for public comment. The proposed plan is available for public perusal and comment during regular business hours. Questions concerning the proposed plan may be directed to Mr. David J. Lecture: Antarctica Environmental concerns for Antarctica's fragile ecosystem will be the topic of an illustrated lecture by a world-renowned scientist who has observed first-hand that continent's changes over the past 30 years.

John Splettstoesser, a geological engineer who is the recipient of honorary medals for his outstanding work in the polar region from both the United States and the USSR, will speak at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, November 14th, at the Dartmouth Council on Aging Center, 628 Dartmouth Street, South Dartmouth. The area public is cordially invited to attend gratis.

When not researching the elements and life in Antarctica, the scientist lives in Rockland, ME where he dedicates his time to writing and serving as international consultant on polar earth sciences. He is editor or co-editor of four books on polar subjects, the most recent being the geology and the mineral resources of the region.

Two geographic features - a glacier and a pass - are named for him in Antarctica;
